

SHORT COURSES CALENDAR 2026

The UNAM short course calendar outlines all credit bearing short courses available during the 2026 academic year. Applicants are required to clearly indicate the specific short course(s) they wish to attend by clicking on the link below.

Apply for the short course of your choice

Please take note if the application is submitted on behalf of a company or institution you should specify the name of the organisation and the number of participants the company anticipate to send. Where a company requests a tailor-made course exclusively for its staff, the required minimum number of participants may vary from course to course in order for the fee per participant to remain aligned with the published calendar rates. Should you experience difficulty reaching the course coordinator, you may contact the CPD unit.
